AN ACTUAL STORY IN SOUND OF CLASS BROADCAST ON THE CBS RADIO WORKSHOP

"A Dog's Life" is a story in sound of people's relation to a dog.

I obtained my dog "Tina" on March 3, 1956. From that day on, I started recording the sounds of the dog and the people with whom she and I came in contact. I recorded the sounds of all the situations "Tina" led me into.

After a year of tape recording "Tina's" life, I went to CBS with the idea. Paul Roberts, the producer of the "CBS Radio Workshop" bought the program. Mr. Roberts, Elliott Gruskin and I planned the story line after listening to the many hours of taped material. Mr. Gruskin then wrote the connecting narration. Ralph Bell was recorded reading the narration. With the taped narration and selected documentary tapes, Mr. Roberts then produced "A Dog's Life". The program was broadcast on the CBS Radio Network. Arrangements were made with CBS to release the program as a record.

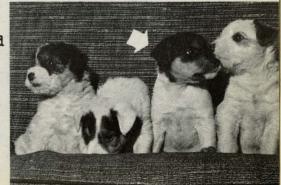

"Tina" was born on January 26, 1956. Her mother was "Fanny" Fishelson. Her father was "Chip" O'Hara. "Tina" is mostly Wire Haired Fox Terrier. "Tina" lives in a 4½ room appartment in New York City. As a-child, I had several dogs. We lived in the country then. The relationship between a dog and master in the city is much closer.

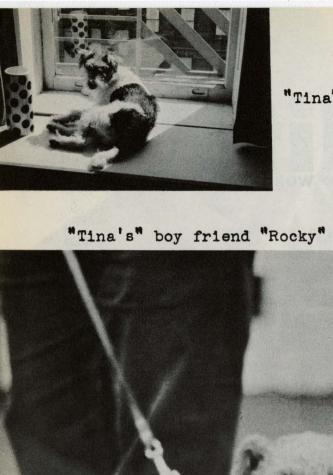

"Tina" as a puppy

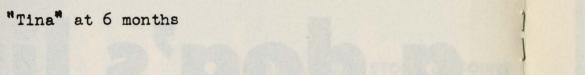

I found the most important factor in training "Tina" was for me to learn how a dog learns. Once I learned that, I did not waste time in training her in a way in which she could not learn.

Having "Tina" is a real pleasure.
