Going Home

©1978 Julie North

I'm coming 'round the corner
Heading 'round the bend
Night it is a-coming
Day is at its end

My legs they are tired
My feet they need a rest
I'm going to where someone
Loves me the best

I'm going home
Where it's nice and warm
Where supper is cooking
And they'll be looking for me
They'll be looking for me

I have often wondered
What some people do
If they can't go home again to someone dear as you

The fire is always burning
And good things are in store
Someone who can care enough
I couldn't ask for more

I'm going home....
In the chill of the sunset
When all things settle in
I'll be coming home again
No matter where I've been

I'm going home....

You Can Do It

©1978 Words: Joanne O'Mahony
Music: Maurice O'Mahony

You can do it if you try
Never give up with a sigh
If you say it can't be done
You'll be missing out on all of the fun

You can do anything you try to do
You can be anyone you want to be
You can do anything you try to do
You can be someone you want to be

You can learn to play guitar
Even be a movie star
You can run the longest race
Or fly way up to outer space

You can do anything....

Just don't quit before you start
Thinking you're not very smart
There's so much that you can do
You'll find that your dreams will come true

You can do anything....

You can do it do it do it
You can make it go so high
You can climb the tallest mountain
Just imagine that you'll try
You can do it do it do it
Push or pull it move it change it
Find it drive it build or make it
It's all up to you to do it

Soda, Daddy
©1976 Julie North

How 'bout a soda, Daddy
How 'bout some candy too
How 'bout a soda, Daddy
I wanna go out with you
I wanna go out with you

How 'bout a movie, Daddy
How 'bout a time at the zoo
How 'bout a movie, Daddy
I love to go out with you

How 'bout a picnic, Daddy
How 'bout some walkin' too
How 'bout a picnic, Daddy
I love it just me and you

Let's get a soda, Daddy
Let's get some candy, too
Let's get a soda, Daddy
I love it just me and you
I love to go out with you

Upside Down

©1978 Sarah Hollatz

Away in the land of upside down
There were funny little folks in a funny little town
The way they lived was back-side too
They did not act like me or like you

Oh way-hey and a skiddle-dee-doo
Is it upside down is it back-side too
Oh way-hey and a skiddle-dee-doo
It all depends on your point of view

They called themselves the Flippety-Flops
And they wore their clothes with the bottoms tops
With their unders out and their overalls in
They were quite a sight with the wrong side right

Oh way-hey...

Their day began with the down side up
They drank their tea from a coffee cup
And went to bed with the morning light
And slept all day and played through the night

Oh way-hey...

Now these Flippety-Flops from Upside Down
They took a trip to your hometown
And what they saw was back-side too
You're as funny to them as they are to you

Oh way-hey...

Little Lauren Brown

©1979 Words: Julie North
Music: Jeff Beck

Little Lauren Brown
Sweetest gal around
Every time she looks at me
My world is all a-glow
Oh I'm glad I know
My Lauren Brown

Golden is her hair
Bluest eyes anywhere
When the night is darkest
Just before a storm
Oh she keeps me warm
My Lauren Brown

I know I could not get by
I'd surely cry
If she went away
I'm glad she's here to stay

Gentle is her smile
Graceful is her style
If you need a princess
She will surely do
Oh I wish you knew
My Lauren Brown

Snow

©1977 Julie North

Snow it is falling
Snow it is falling
Snow it has fallen
All through the night

Ground it is covered
Ground it is covered
Covered with white

I will go gliding
I will go sliding
I will go riding
Over the white

I'll go on the hillside
I'll go on the mountain
My sled it will take me
Wherever I like

Snow it is falling
Snow it is falling
Snow it has fallen
All through the night

Everything's white
Everything's bright
Snow it has fallen

Pounding Sound

©1979 Sarah Hollatz

There's a pounding sound
And it's all around
And a fiddle or three
In a lively key

All the people are there
And it's quite an affair
For today's the parade

Oh the fourth of July
And the flag flies high
Colors are true
Red white and blue

Flutes and horns
Yellow uniforms
Join the parade

Hold the columns tight
Twirl a baton
And sing a song

There are horses there
And they make a pair
And join our parade

So you come too
There's a lot to do
Big and Small
We're marching tall

There's a pounding sound
And it's all around
Hooray for parades

Rain

©1978 Jeff Beck

Time to go to bed now
Time to go to sleep
As I lay my head down
Pray my soul to keep

I can hear the thunder
Lightning I can see
All my covers I'm under
As I go to sleep

Rain goes tappety-tap-tap
Rain goes tappety-tap-tap
On my window
On my roof
Rain goes tappety-tap-tap

I Set A Seed

©1978 Sarah Hollatz

I set a seed in the ground to grow
What it was I did not know
I found it out by the garden-o
I dug it in with my barefoot toe

I watered it almost every day
And cut the weeds that grew in the way
I hoped someday that it would form
A turnip, a carrot, a radish or corn

Through the week the earth was bare
Though I'd taken most every care
And then one day as I sat and stared
A little green thing was growing there

I watered it almost every day
And cut the weeds that grew in the way
I hoped someday that I could shout
"It's a bean, or a pea, or a green brusselsprout"

It grew to be just about five feet high
A bright yellow flower with seeds inside
It wasn't a squash or a broccoli
But a sunflower reaching a face to the sky

I set a seed in the ground to grow
What it was I did not know
I found it out by the garden-o
Maybe it fell from an oriole

Sing Along Suzie

©1978 Julie North

Sing along Suzie
Sing along right on key
Sing along Suzie
Suzie sing along with me

I know a girl named Sing-along-Suzie
She will go most anywhere
When there is a band playing
Suzie will be there

Sing along Suzie...

Suzie gets the beat going
From her head down to her toes
And you know there's people singing
Everywhere that Suzie goes

Sing along Suzie...

Suzie doesn't want a pony
Doesn't even want a bike
If you ask her what she wants
She'll say "Singing is what I like"

Sing along Suzie...

Suzie she can sing so pretty
She knows how to sing this song
And if she were here she'd tell you
All to sing this song

Sing along Suzie...

Read To Me

© 1977 Sarah Hollatz

I'll be quiet as a flower
If you'll take a half an hour
And read this book to me

It's the story of an old man
Who was lonely and had no friend
And was blind and could not see

So read to me, Oh read to me
Just turn the page, we'll make him see
Oh read to me, Oh read to me
Just turn the page and he'll see

Sunshine Day

©1978 Sarah Hollatz

It's a sunshine Day
Gonna get the mood
With an attitude
It's a sunshine Day

It's a sunshine day
Gonna set the style with a great big smile
It's a sunshine day

No need to grumble about
How the weather is doubtful
Or clouded or heavy with rain

Don't think of whether it's Monday
Just make it a Sunday
And troubles will go
Down the drain...
Can't complain...

It's a sunshine day
And it's gonna stay
Cause I feel that way
It's a sunshine day

It's a sunshine Day
Gonna come my way
I'll just smile and say
It's a sunshine day

Lines Go Up

©1977 Julie North

Lines go up and lines go down
Circles they go 'round and 'round
Rain it drips upon the ground
Moon light does not make a sound

Tides will rise and rains will fall
Trees will stand so still and tall
Sun lights up things big and small
Darkness does not show at all

Things have ways of being
Just what they can be
You are just like you are
And I am just like me

From this story you can tell that I like you very well
Being just what you can be
And I hope that you like me

Lines go up and lines go down
Circles they go round and round

Never Gonna Come

©1977 Sarah Hollatz

Never Gonna Come
It's never gonna come
It's never gonna ever gonna never Gonna ever Gonna come

Never gonna come
Never gonna come
Oh when will it be here
A mile a minute
A day away
It's much too long I fear

My favorite month
Of all the year
Is when the snowflakes fall
Christmas time
When sleighbells chime
But now is just July

Never gonna come...

I have the feeling
When I wait
It always takes too long
To make the time go
Not so slowly
I will sing this song

Never gonna come...

For Jessie

©1978 Ed Packer

Oh Jessie
Here's a song I've written for you
Just to say how I adore you
Can't remember life before you
Oh Jessie

Oh Baby
Oh my heart is full of wonder
It's such a lovely spell I'm under
Don't know if I can recover
Oh baby

Oh Jessie
The way the Lord has planned this Someday you will understand this
I hope it makes you smile then
Oh Jessie

Oh Baby
May I say I love you madly
I'm so glad to be your Daddy
Think I'll linger for a while then
My Baby

My Train

©1978 Sarah Hollatz

My train can go both fast and slow
The wheels go 'round and the whistle can blow
Oh it can stop on this or that side
It's taking my teddy bear off on a ride

Ring-o-ring-a-ling
Ding-dong-ding-a-ling
Ring-o-ring-a-ling
Ding dong ding

Through the tunnel and out again
I know it will go to where I send it
Raise a bridge and lower a flag
Or go in a circle and then come back

Ring-o-ring-a-ling...

Kimberly's Song

©1970 Julie North

Sweetly sleep my baby
Softly next to me
Gently rock by baby
Forever you and me

Someday when you're grown-up
Someday you will see
The world is filled with flowers
There for you to see

And when you start reaching
Like branches from a tree
You'll find the sunlight shining
Everywhere you'll be

So sweetly sleep my baby
Softly here by me
The world will soon be calling
Calling you from me
