Climbing High Mountains

The Gospel Tones was organized in the year 1964 under the management of Mr. Alfred Charleston. The group appeared in various churches throughout the State of Michigan. After being accepted so wonderfully the group was inspired to start making professional appearances.

They also had a radio broadcast over station W A F T for a period of five years, which is located in Grand Rapids, Michigan. They have also made several TV appearances. In the past two years they have traveled throughout the United States and they have appeared at various High Schools and auditoriums such as the Park Center Auditorium in Charlotte, North Carolina along with the Inspirational Singers of North Carolina, the Y.M.C.A. Auditorium in Memphis, Tennessee along with the Sons of Dixie, the King Solomon, Helena, Arkansas along with Rev. Perkins and ex-member of the Five Blind Boys.

This group has appeared with many other famous groups throughout the country. The Gospel Tones consist of five members: Alfred Charleston, born in Vicksburg, Miss., now a resident of Grand Rapids, Michigan; Juanita Johnson, born in Jackson, Miss., now a resident of Grand Rapids, Michigan; James Nails, born in Miss., now a resident of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Ollie Jones, born in Columbus, Miss., now a resident of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Thomas Coles, Meridan, Miss., now a resident of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The Gospel Tones perform in a style that is unique from most of the gospel music heard today.
