ELLA JENKINS AND EARLY CHILDHOOD MUSIC EDUCATION

Ella Jenkins wears the title given her by many of her fans, “The First Lady of Children’s Music,” with tremendous energy. Now in her ninth decade, she continues to provide a rare model of the music that best suits the lives and learning styles of young children. Her irresistible songs—performed at preschools, schools, camps, and community institutions as well as on radio, television, concerts, and at teachers’ conferences—draw on a long history of children’s game songs coupled with her own genius as a composer and music educator.

Ella Jenkins, who was born in St. Louis, spent much of her childhood in Chicago, surrounded by music. She studied sociology, child psychology, and recreation at San Francisco State University, and was drawn to the music of her own and other cultures. While working in youth camps and then as a YWCA program director for teens in the early 1950s, she led singing sessions that featured folk and traditional songs from her neighborhood; songs she was learning from Spanish-speaking friends; songs she happened across in Hebrew, Arabic, and French, and from India and the African continent; and songs she’d written. She has performed her songs all over the world, learns new songs everywhere she goes, and teaches them to children when she gets home. Her accomplishments have been widely recognized by awards from ASCAP (Lifetime Achievement) and Parents’ Choice, and she received a GRAMMY Lifetime Achievement Award—the first ever awarded to a children’s music artist. Her recordings, the most popular releases on the Folkways record label, have inspired generations of teachers, children, and musicians.

1

Easy as ABC

Ella Jenkins, vocals

From COME DANCE BY THE OCEAN SFW 45014

This little alphabetical exploration is aimed at the younger children, though all ages can get involved—especially in the memory testing.

A is for Apple.
A is for Annie too.

B is for banana.
And B is for the boy in blue.

C is for cherry.
C is for Cathy too.

C is for caring, and I care a lot about you.

2

Johnny Had One Friend

Ella Jenkins, vocals and ukulele

From COUNTING GAMES AND RHYTHMS FOR THE LITTLE ONES SFW 45029

Johnny had one friend, one friend, one friend
Johnny had one friend
Johnny had two.

Johnny had two friends, two friends, two friends
Johnny had two friends
Johnny had three.

Johnny had three friends, three friends, three friends
Johnny had three friends
Johnny had four....
(You can keep increasing the number for practice.)

This song was taught to me by Larry Gordon, one of my seven-year-old students. The original song was:
Johnny had one hand, one hand, one hand
Johnny had one hand, etc.

3

One, Two, Three, Four, Five

Ella Jenkins, vocals and ukulele

From COUNTING GAMES AND RHYTHMS FOR THE LITTLE ONES SFW 45029

One, two, three, four, five
I caught a fish alive.

Why did I let him go?
Because he bit my finger so. (Wiggle your little finger.)

One, two, three, four, five
I caught a fish alive.

Six, seven, eight, nine, ten
I let him go again.

Why did I let him go?
Because he bit my finger so.

Which finger did he bite?
The little one on the right. (Wiggle your little finger.)

I heard this little counting rhyme at a workshop in Montreal, Canada.
The tune did not stay with me so I made up a new one.

4

One, Two, Buckle My Shoe

Ella Jenkins, vocals; recited by a child named Callie

From COUNTING GAMES AND RHYTHMS FOR THE LITTLE ONES SFW 45029

One, two Buckle my shoe

Three, four Knock on the door

Five, six
Pick up sticks

Seven, eight
Lay them straight

Nine, ten
A big fat hen

Eleven, twelve
Dig and delve

Thirteen, fourteen
The maids are courtin'

Fifteen, sixteen
The maids are in the kitchen

Seventeen, eighteen
The maids are waiting

Nineteen, twenty
The platter's empty.

5

One Potato, Two Potato

Ella Jenkins, vocals

From COUNTING GAMES AND RHYTHMS FOR THE LITTLE ONES SFW 45029

One potato, two potato, three potato, four Five potato, six potato, seven potato, more.

Here's a little chant to practice rhythm with. The game is easy to play—simply call it “fist stacking.” It's fun to play with partners or with several children. Everybody does the chanting. Children enjoy playing it over and over again. Speed up the rhythm to make it more exciting.

6

Eight Clay Pigeons

Ella Jenkins, vocals

From COUNTING GAMES AND RHYTHMS FOR THE LITTLE ONES SFW 45029

Eight clay pigeons (2x)

Eight clay pigeons a-sitting on a wall

Oh look, one of them has flown away...

Seven clay pigeons (2x)...

You need not confine yourself to eight pigeons—you could easily use fewer or more. Let the children run, skip, hop, etc., on “flown away,” providing there is ample space. As each child flies away, you might suggest an area of the city, state, or country of the world to fly to.

7

Counting in Swahili

Ella Jenkins, vocals

From JAMBO AND OTHER CALL AND RESPONSE SONGS AND CHANTS SFW 45017

Ella — group

Moja, Moja — one

Mbili, Mbili — two

Tatu, Tatu — three

Ine, Ine — four

Tano, Tano — five

Sita, Sita — six

Saba, Saba — seven

Nane, Nane — eight

Tisa, Tisa — nine

Kumi, Kumi — ten

9

One, Two, Three, O'Leary

Ella Jenkins, vocals; Rita Ruby, guitar; Angela Palmares, solo (counting Spanish)

From AFRICAN AMERICAN LEGACY SERIES: ELLA JENKINS: A LIFE OF SONG SFW 45067

This was a popular song in my Chicago neighborhood, sung in English from one to ten, and then reversing the order from ten to one. In this rendition, a child sings the numbers in Spanish. The call-and-response form comes shining through, with the group of singing children always at the ready for "O'Leary."

One, two, three, O'Leary

Four, five, six, O'Leary

Seven, eight, nine, O'Leary

Ten, O'Leary postmaster.

Ten, nine, eight, O'Leary

Seven, six, five, O'Leary

Four, three, two, O'Leary

One, O'Leary postmaster.

Uno, dos, tres, O'Leary

Cuatro, cinco, seis, O'Leary

Siete, ocho, nueve, O'Leary

Diez, O'Leary postmaster.

10

Numbers and Alphabets

Ella Jenkins, ukulele; with the children from the Dearborn Park Pre-school

From COME DANCE BY THE OCEAN SFW 45014

One two three, one two three,
Were the very first numbers that were taught to me.
ABC, ABC,
Were the very first letters that were taught to me.
XYZ, XYZ,
Were the very last letters that were taught to me.

The younger children and I worked on these rhymes at their school. I was quite pleased that they did so well in the studio, since we had not rehearsed for some time. Younger children seem to enjoy counting games and reciting alphabets.

11

ABCs

Ella Jenkins, vocals; John Carbo, banjo; Guy Gilbert, guitar

From EARLY EARLY CHILDHOOD SONGS SFW 45015

A, B, C, D, E, F, G,
H, I, J, K, L, M, N, O, P,
Q, R, S,
T, U, V,
W, X, Y, and Z

Now I know my ABCs
Next time won't you sing with me?

12

And One and Two...

Ella Jenkins, ukulele, vocals

From AND ONE AND TWO AND OTHER SONGS FOR PRE-SCHOOL AND PRIMARY CHILDREN

SFW 45016

And one

And two

And three

And four

And five

And six

And seven

And eight

Clap your hands

Shake your hand

Beat your chest

Slap your thighs

Stamp your feet

Tap your knees

Slide your feet

Dangle your legs.

13

Ten Green Bottles

Ella Jenkins, vocals

From GROWING UP WITH ELLA JENKINS SFW 45032

Michael Jolley is from England, but I met him in New Orleans, Louisiana. He taught me this song from his childhood.

Ten green bottles hanging on a wall (2x)
If one green bottle should accidentally fall,
There'd be nine green bottles hanging on a wall.

Nine green bottles hanging on a wall (2x)
If two green bottles should accidentally fall,
There'd be seven green bottles hanging on a wall.

Seven green bottles hanging on a wall (2x)
If three green bottles should accidentally fall,
There'd be four green bottles hanging on a wall.

Four green bottles hanging on a wall (2x)

If three green bottles should accidentally fall,
There'd be one green bottle hanging on a wall.

One green bottle hanging on a wall (2x)

If that green bottle should accidentally fall,
There'd be no green bottles hanging on a wall.

14

Farmer Brown Had Ten Green Apples

Ella Jenkins, vocals

From GROWING UP WITH ELLA JENKINS SFW 45032

Girls and boys, here are some children from the
Mary Crane Day Care Center who have a song to share with us. It reminds me very much of Michael Jolley's song.

Famer Brown had ten green apples hanging on a tree (2x)
Then he picked one apple, and he ate it greedily
Leaving nine green apples a-hanging on a tree.

(Count down with the children taking turns singing each new verse.)

15

The Rabbi Teaches ABCs / English ABC Song

Arnold Radel, viola; Ella Jenkins, vocals

From TRAVELLIN' WITH ELLA JENKINS SFW 45009

Alef, Bet, Gimel

A, B, C, D, E, F, G,
H, I, J, K, L, M, N, O, P,
Q, R, S,
T, U, V,
W, X, Y, and Z

Now I know my ABCs
Next time won't you sing with me?

In the old days,
the rabbi taught
the young children their alphabet in Yiddish while a fire burned in the stove in the kitchen. This helped to keep the young ones warm
while they were nestled together learning their ABCs.

16

This Old Man

Ella Jenkins, vocals; John Carbo, banjo; Guy Guilbert, guitar

From EARLY EARLY CHILDHOOD SONGS SFW 45015

This old man, he played one
He played knick knack on my thumb

Chorus:

With a knick knack paddy whack give a dog a bone
This old man came rolling home.

This old man, he played two
He played knick knack on my shoe

Chorus

This old man, he played three
He played knick knack on my knee

Chorus

This old man, he played four
He played knick knack on my door

Chorus

This old man, he played five
He played knick knack on my side

Chorus
