"I'm from the 50s. For me, the clock stopped running after the 50s. There's no 'something new' for me. As modern as I try to get, it always comes out 50s. I lived through the 60s and 70s, but as far as the music I feel inside, it's the 50s, and even part of the 40s, music from when I was a young kid. That's what I have inside of me." - Freddie Fender from a 1992 interview with Davia Nelson.

Before the Wasted Days and Wasted Nights, before the Last Teardrop Fell, Freddy Fender was a Rock 'N Roller. Call it Rock en Español, call it Tex-Mex Garage Rock, it's a young and wild Freddy Fender singing both originals and rock 'n roll classics en Español.

This album was originally released in the early 1960's on the regional Texas label IDEAL, LP # 136. It features all the original songs from the album and we have recreated the original album cover artwork.
