BOBBY SUSSER SONGS™
For Children

We Are Better Together
We Are Better Together

Through the universal language of music, this album teaches children why it is important and necessary to get along with each other. Some of the songs teach the benefits of cooperation, helpfulness, and kindness. Others encourage harmonizing our differences to help understand how and why we are better together. The album is meant to promote communication and socialization, crossing culture, class, and race so our children may share all the joys that come to each of them.

While the subject matter is serious, these original songs are easy-to-learn for children to sing along with, listen to, and learn from as well as provide a feeling of togetherness. Indeed, it will be very nice to see all children come together in harmony and knowing...we are better together.

I Am Not So Different

When you call to know me
1. The child/children may join in the chorus.
2. The setting is appropriate and safe, the child/children may dance and or sing along to the song.
3. The child/children may either draw a picture or discuss a person or persons they enjoy sharing playing, learning, and being with.
4. The parent/teacher may ask the child/children to share an experience they have had which demonstrates how good it is to be nice to each other, and why people should be nice to each other.
5. The child/children may draw a picture of a person he/she/they know is nice.
6. It's nice to be nice.
7. Everybody knows that it's nice to be nice.
8. Everybody knows that it's nice to be nice.
9. Everybody knows that it's nice to be nice.
10. We all know it's nice to be nice.

It's nice to be nice.

Dear President

1. The child/children may join in the chorus.
2. The parent/teacher may discuss or explain that once we help each other, we will all have so much fun.
3. The child/children may write a letter in their own words, asking the president to "Tell everybody why we all should be friends.

I can't wait to be nice.

Dear Mr. President

1. The child/children may write a letter in their own words, asking the president to "Tell everybody why we all should be friends.

We Are Better Together

by Bobby Susser

1. The child/children may join in the chorus.
2. The child/children may sing the last two lines of each verse or the entire song.
3. The parent/teacher may assist the child/children in making a list entitled, "Why We Are Better Together." Then the lines may be discussed.

I could laugh a lot.

But I laugh much more.

When we cooperate,

We'll all have fun.

I can't eat it by myself.

I have an apple pie I can't eat the whole thing.

When we're better together,

We talk and all go along.

I have roller skates but I can't get them

I can't stay out by myself.

Once we help each other,

We'll all be happy.

All the fun is better together.

We Are Better Together
When I am dancing with you
I could learn a lot
But I learn much more
When I am learning with you
And that's why we're better together
We're so much better together
Da da da da da
Da da da da da da da
I could learn a lot
But I learn much more
When I am learning with you
And that's why we're better together
We're so much better together
We are better together

We Could Understand by Bobby Susser

1. The child/children may join in the chorus.
2. If the setting is appropriate and safe, the child/children may dance to the song.
3. The parent/teacher may ask the child/children how he/she/they can get to know others more so that they may live better together.
4. The child/children may draw pictures, verbally describe, and/or write ways people can understand one another more than they do. The parent/teacher may assist the child/children where it is necessary.

If I could be you for one day
If I could see with your eyes
If you could be me for one day
If you could see with my eyes

We could understand
We could understand
Together we could see most everything
We could understand
We could understand
Together we could see most everything
If I could be you for one day
If I could hear with your ears
If you could be me for one day
If you could hear with my ears

We could understand
We could understand
Together we could hear most everything
We could understand
We could understand
Together we could hear most everything
If I could be you for one day
If I could know what you know
If you could be me for one day

If you could know what I know
We could understand
We could understand
Together we could learn so many things
We could understand
We could understand
Together we could learn so many things

Oh What a Sight
by Bobby Susser

1. The child/children may join in the chorus.
2. The child/children may clap hands to this lively song.
3. The parent/teacher may want to use this song as an introduction to the subject of freedom.

If everyone in this big world would smile for me
Oh what a sight oh what a sight
Oh what a sight that would be
Oh what a sight oh what a sight
Oh what a sight that would be
Oh what a sight oh what a sight
Oh what a sight that would be
Oh what a sight oh what a sight
Oh what a sight that would be for me

If everyone in this big world would act so free
If everyone in this big world would smile for me
Oh what a sight oh what a sight
Oh what a sight that would be
Oh what a sight oh what a sight
Oh what a sight that would be
Oh what a sight oh what a sight
Oh what a sight that would be
Oh what a sight oh what a sight
Oh what a sight that would be for me

Oh what a sight oh what a sight
Oh what a sight that would be
Oh what a sight oh what a sight
Oh what a sight that would be
Oh what a sight oh what a sight
Oh what a sight that would be
Oh what a sight oh what a sight
Oh what a sight that would be for you
And me

When We’re All Standing Together
by Bobby Susser

1. The child/children may join in this spirited chorus.
2. When there is a group of children singing the chorus, they may stand and join hands as they sing, providing the setting is appropriate and safe.
3. The child/children may draw a picture of people joining hands and standing together.

We are never alone
Wherever we go
We are on the same side
Whatever we do

When we’re all standing together
When we’re all standing together
When we’re all standing together in this world
When we’re all standing together
When we’re all standing together
When we’re all standing together
When we’re all standing together in this world

We are on the same side
Whatever we do
We are on the same side
Whatever we do

When we’re all standing together
When we’re all standing together
When we’re all standing together in this world
When we’re all standing together
When we’re all standing together
When we’re all standing together
When we’re all standing together in this world

There is always someone
When you need someone
There is always someone
When you need someone

When we’re all standing together
When we’re all standing together
When we’re all standing together in this world
When we’re all standing together
