SONGS TO GROW ON

SUNG BY JACK ELLIOTT

Cathy Ann—we call her Miss Stackabones—heard every one of these songs before Moe Asch melted them down onto his records.

I really did try to slant these songs at all of you citizens from four to six, but I spilled over a little on every side, because all of us sang and danced these songs and all of us got about the same kick out of them.

Stackabones likes her songs and stories best of all when her mommy and her pappy sing, talk, listen, and dance with her. She joins in lots quicker and louder and freer when all of us lay down our books, papers, our knitting, twitting and our heavy spirits, and all get going together on our story, our song, or dance.

We beat on books, boxes, on tin cans and floors. We rattle shakers, spoons and bells, and we jump all around in a long trot, a rig-a-jig-jig, a crazy lope, gallop or a wild jump. We settle down then and tell some real quiet story in a whisper. We make up some new story if we forget our old ones.

I've been making up songs and playing and singing them now for twenty years and Cathy at nearly four years can out-rhyme, out-play me, out-sing me any old day.

Now I don't want to see you use my songs to divide nor split your family all apart. I mean, don't just buy these records and take them home so your kids can play around with them while you go off and do something else. I want to see you join right in, do what your kids do. Let your kids teach you how to play and how to act these songs out. (These and a thousand other songs.) Get your whole family into the fun. Get papa. Get mama. Get brother. Get sister. Get aunty. Get uncle. Get grandma. Grampa. The friends. The neighbors. Everybody. But mostly get your own self into it.

Please, please, please, don't read nor sing my songs like no lesson book, like no text for today. But, let them be a little key to sort of unlock and let down all of your old bars.

Watch the kids. Do like they do. Act like they act. Yell like they yell. Dance the way you see them dance. Sing like they sing. Work and rest the way the kids do.

You'll be healthier. You'll feel wealthier. You'll talk wiser. You'll go higher, do better and live longer here amongst us, if you'll just only jump in here and swim around in these songs and do like the kids do.

I don't want the kids to be grownup. I want to see the grown folks be kids.

—WOODY GUTHRIE
Cathy caught on to every song here when she heard us play it for her the first time. The second time, Miss Stackabones sang the whole chorus, or the whole song, word for word, move for move, and clap for clap, right along with her mama and me.

These are the words Cathy said about each one of our work songs to grow on:

PICK IT UP: I've got an uncle Hymie and he sings a song like that and he says, I drop my toe, and my hand, and my everything, and he's goofy.

BUILD MY HOUSE: My uncle Hymie sings, kling klang klammer with my klammer, klingo klango klutting with my klaw. He's funny.

ALL WORK TOGETHER: Mama, what do I do when I giggle and I wiggle?

PLANT MY LITTLE SEED: Daddy, which tree did the little baby grow up in?

PRETTY AND SHINY-O: She danced and acted this one out several times, usually making up most of her own words, then she said, "My eyes are pretty and shiny because I brushed my teeth so nice and clean."

NEEDLE SING: She danced around on some dry leaves and said, "Zing zing zing zing zing zing. Mama, mama, mama, mama, mama, mama, mama. Daddy when is mommy coming home?"

Put your finger in the air, in the air,
Put your finger in the air, in the air.

WHY OH WHY OH WHY

Why can't a dish break a hammer?
Why oh why oh why?
Because a hammer's got a hard head
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye.

Why oh why oh why and a why
And a tell me why oh why?
Because, because, because, because,
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye.

Why can't a bird eat an elephant?
Tell me why and a why?
Because an elephant's got a pretty hard skin,
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye.

Why can't a mouse eat a street-car?
Tell me why and a why?
Because a mouse's stomach was never big enough to hold a street-car,
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye.

Why does a cow drink water?
Tell me why oh why.
Because a cow gets thirsty just like you or me or anybody else,
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye.

Why don't you answer my questions?
Tell me why and a why?
Because I don't know the answers,
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye.

ALL WORK TOGETHER

We all work together
With a wiggle and a giggle
A jigger and a jagger
And a giggle and a grin.

My mama said,
And my teacher, too,
All kinds of work
That I can do
Dry my dishes,
Sweep my floor,
I tell mommy an' my daddy,
Gram paw an' Grammaw, too,
And tell my sister and my brother,
There's lots of work to do,
You can bring me pennies,
And candy and gum,
But, if we all work together,
'Twon't take so very long, and so:

I can paint my fence
I can mow my lawn,
But, if we all work together,
Well, it shouldn't take long, so:

My sister told me,
Brother told me, too,
Lots and lotsa work
That I can do,
I can bring her candy,
I can bring him gum,
But, if we all work together,
Hadn't oughtta take long, so:
