Side 1, Band 1: Me One Alone

Yes the Lord Invader back in America,
Me one alone,
And he’s not afraid of no Calypso singer,
Me one alone.
There’s war and rebellion when I meet Calypsonian,
They could bring the Lord Melody from San Fernando,
Or King Chena who’s the King of Calypso,
Me one alone.
But the Lord Invader will never surrender,
Just tell them I’m a Master Calypsonian,
Me one alone.
And Calypsonians, they don’t surrender,
Me one alone,
And the Lord Invader has peace of mind now,
Me one alone.
The Lord Invader will never surrender,
I’m the Lord Invader, master Calypso singer,
Yeah, me one alone in Long Island,
Me one alone.

Side 1, Band 2: As Long as it Born in my House
(Lieutenant Joe)

Constantly I have been hearing rumours
From some gossip mongers around the corners
One of my friends had the nerve to tell me
That I am taking care of somebody else’s baby
I said my hair is so notty
You are a brunette and it born a blondie
Darling Angeline everything is fine
As long as it born in my house is mine.
Side 1, Band 3: Beautiful Belgic

So much good things I was hearing
How the Belgium people are accommodating
Hospitable and kind
And they always ready to show you a good time
Now I have proved it believe me I would not go
Back to the land of calypso
If they say I am ungrateful I do not care
All Trinidadians got to meet me over there

17th. April '56. I was there in person
When King Bedouin declared the World Fair open
I visited the British and Canadian pavilion
The American, Russian Atonium
As I was taken around I was also told
The Atonium symbolizes the modern world
So to be in a new world I was more than pleased
So why should I go back to the West Indies.

Side 1, Band 4: My Experience on the Reeperbahn

My first night of arrival
I went to the Ghana Bar
Menties, Pegal and Blue Peter
To have some fun that night was my intention
So I decided to plan an invasion
At Blue Peter I felt grovey so I took a chance
I held on to an object and started to dance
After the dance the leader of the band
Said Lord Invader you were dancing with a man.

(CHORUS)

That physical statue had me hypnotized
I felt a sudden trill when it gazed in my eyes
For the way that it walk with such prominence
And spoke with such feminine eloquence
I introduce myself as Lord Invader
The object said my name is Madam Ericker
Surprisingly it turn out to be
That the object was of the same species as me.

(CHORUS)

Side 1, Band 5: Auf Wiedersehen

It was a great honor and privilege,
For them to hear me speak their own language,
"Guten Morgen" — which is “Good morning!”
“Guten Abend,”—That is “Good evening!”
Hear me telling them: “Ich liebe dich,”
That means “I love them” in English,
Hear them sagen, miene Lieber, das ist…
Which means that I am a good lovemaker.
Hear me telling—

(Chorus)

My first invasion in Germany was Hamburg,
Frankfurt, Dusseldorf and Munchen,
Cologne, Neurenberg and Berlin,
When they ask me what I’m eating,
They say “Was essen?”
What I’m drinking—“Was trinken?”
What is to hear me talking them, them,
But say, “Meine Liebchen, danke schoen!”

Side 1, Band 6: Crisis in Arkansas

If you ever stop to think that we all are human,
You will be a humanitarian.
Instead you are encouraging segregation,
And do not believe in integration.
But God made us all and in him we trust,
Nobody in this world is better than us.
One day you will be made to realize,
Six feet of earth makes us all of one size.

(Chorus)

Some said it was for political reasons,
Why you are such a naive person,
But I’ve made you a study, everyone knows,
That you have a fear for us negroes.
That’s why you are violating every law,
And closing up the schools in Arkansas.
I think that is high class ignorance,
You are afraid of the negro’s intelligence.

(Chorus)

In my opinion, that’s nothing but gorilla action,
Depriving the kids of their education,
When they can become eminent lawyers,
Politicians, scientists and doctors,
Like Clayton Powell or…
Dr. Bunche or Dr…
Then they can climb the ladder of fame,
And utilize their atomic brain.

Side 1, Band 7: Fidel Castro

Fidel Castro say no,

Side 2, Band 4: Cat-O-Nine Tails

In the days of Judge Ritchins, as you know, nothing never happened so,
Any man pass under his hand, can tell you the rod of correction,
He’s a leader not meek and mild, he never spare the rod to spoil the child,
I say one thing to put down this crime, is to bring back the old-time Cat-O-Nine.

(Chorus)

The police is working harder and hard, to see this things go no further,
Every night they’re on duty to safeguard us from violence and robbery
But it would not stop at all, Peter is going to pay for Paul,
I say the cat is the only time bomb to drop on this of correction robust...

(Chorus)

You see that though these Teddy Boys haven’t got no reason attacking innocent people,
Every night they’re walking about with a razor in their hand,
But the judge and jurors, can settle this thing easily,
I say one thing to put down this crime, yes, beat them
With the old-time Cat-O-Nine
Side 2, Band 5: Steel Band War

But now, partner, when policeman raids,
Mari bands has pistols and hand grenades.
From what I have heard,
They blocked the whole traffic on...railroad.
In Proctor’s Village, where I was residing,
Imagine how my relatives was hiding.
I was quiet on the hills in John-John,
They had an armored tank and a tommy-gun,
And from good sources I understand,
They had no more ammunition than the Egyptians.

The Caressers’ outlas, bottle and stone,
That was the ammunition we had at home.

The steel band has an association,
Just as strong as the United Nations,
But yet they have no behavior,
They more stubborn than Colonel Nasser,
But if they move into Long Island,
Well the Lord Invader has got a time,
I’m going to charter ATA,
And bet your life I am going away.

(CHORUS)

They have some hooligans back in Britain,
So Eric Williams send more Trinidadians,
But don’t forget Mari bands,
Desperadoes and invaders,
And when scattered and run up a hill,
I know they got to come to a standstill.
With some cases of vodka and the rum,
They will be more dangerous than any H-bomb.

(CHORUS)

Side 2, Band 6: Women Trying to Rule

My wife is using me as a dope,
On a Sunday when I draw my envelope.
And I tell her, “Darlin’, I am feeling numb,
I like to go out with my friends to buy rum.”
She will tell me, “No darling, you cannot go,”
Don’t you see she’s making me a party show.
She said we have a date to go out alone,
So I have to stay and mind the children at home.

(CHORUS)
