ENGLISH SYNOPSIS of the Vocal Selections:

KOSTYA THE SAILOR
This lyric tells of Kostya the sailor who used to bring boat loads of mullets into the port of Odessa. He was very popular and respected by all of the town for his good catches. He meets Sonya, a fisherwoman, and marries her, and everyone in Odessa dances day and night at the gay wedding of the sailor.

SILENCE
It is a stormy night. You are many worlds away, I’m out of your every thought. Through the city I wander—all is silence. If only I could find you where you live now, perhaps in some distant land, I would ask your forgiveness. Then you would know through all the nights sleep has never come to me. I wait here in my dark room—all is silence.

FORGET-ME-NOT
In Russia there is a flower called “forget-me-not.” “When we meet and when we say good-bye—when I leave for a distant shore—Remember the forget-me-not.”
