An Introductory Note About the Man and His Music

Woodrow Wilson Guthrie, one of the great folk song balladmakers of this century, wrote more than a thousand songs between 1932 and 1952. Some may never be worth singing. Others may stand the test of time and, like "Auld Lang Syne" or "Go Tell Aunt Rhody," become world classics. His method of composition was to pound out verse after verse on the typewriter, or in his precise, country style handwriting, and try it out on his guitar as he went along. Later the song could be pruned down to usable size. He put his rhymes to tunes which were, more often than not, slightly amended versions of old folk melodies. Thus "Philadelphia Lawyer" used the tune of "The Jealous Lover of Lone Green Valley." "Pastures of Plenty" used one of the many versions of "Pretty Polly," and "Roll On Columbia" adapted "Goodnight Irene." He was often not exactly conscious of where he got the tune, until it was pointed out to him. "So Long" used the melody of "The Ballad of Billy the Kid" and "Reuben James" used "Wildwood Flower," a tune recorded by the Carter Family, well-known country recording artists of the 1930s (and from whose records Woody learned many songs, as well as his style of guitar playing).

To both of these last songs, however, he added a chorus worthy of any good composer. He fiddled around with the melody of the verse, until he compounded and developed elements of it into a singable refrain.

The songs were rarely written to order. Anything worth discussing was worth a song to him: news off the front page, sights and sounds of the countryside he traveled through, and thoughts brought to mind by reading anything from Rabindranath Tagore to Will Rogers. Though some songs became top sellers on the hit parade, he never comosed with the hit parade in mind. In fact, he had a rather disparaging attitude toward Tin Pan Alley and any kind of commercial success. Songs were composed for himself and his friends to sing, and he had faith that a good song would get around in spite of the music industry.

Pete Seeger (1962)
1. HARD TRAVELIN'
(with Sonny Terry & Cisco Houston)
I've been a-havin' some hard travelin', I thought you knewed
I've been a-havin' some hard travelin', way down the road
I've been a-havin' some hard travelin', hard ramblin', hard gamblin'
I've been havin' some hard travelin' Lord.
I've been ridin' in fast rattlers, I thought you knewed
I've been ridin' in flat wheelers, way down the road
I've been ridin' in blind passengers, dead enders, pickin' up cinders
I've been havin' some hard travelin' Lord.
I've been a-hittin' some hard-rock mining, I thought you knewed
North of Dakota to Kansas City, way down the road
Cuttin' that wheat, stackin' that hay, and I'm tryin' to make about a dollar a day
An' I've been havin' some hard travelin' Lord.
I've been a-workin' that Pittsburgh steel, I thought you knewed
I've been a-dumpin' that red-hot slag, way down the road
I've been a blastin', I've been a-firin', I've been apourin' that red-hot iron
An' I've been a-hittin' some hard travelin' Lord.
I've been a-layin' in a hard-rock jail, I thought you knewed
I've been a-layin' out ninety days, way down the road
Damned old judge he said to me, ninety days for vagrancy
I've been a-hittin' some hard travelin' Lord.

2. WHAT DID THE DEEP SEA SAY?
(with Cisco Houston)
Oh captain, tell me true, does my sailor sail with you?
No, he does not sail with me, he sleeps on the bottom of the sea.

Chorus:
What did the deep sea say, tell me, what did the deep sea say?
It moaned and it groaned and it splashed and it foamed and it rolled on its weary way.

3. THE RISING SUN BLUES
There is a house in New Orleans, you call the Rising Sun
It's been the ruin of many a poor soul, and me, oh God, I'm one.
If I had listened to what mama said... be at home today
Being so young and foolish, poor girl, let a gambler lead me astray.

Chorus:
I'm a-goin' back down to New Orleans to that house of the Rising Sun.

4. NINE HUNDRED MILES
(instrumental)
(with Cisco Houston, guitar & Woody Guthrie, fiddle)
3. JOHN HENRY
(with Cisco Houston)

John Henry when he was a baby
Settlin' on his mammy's knee
Picked up a hammer in his little right hand
Said, hammer'll be the death of me, me, me
Said, hammer'll be the death of me
Said, hammer'll be the death of me, me, me
Said, hammer'll be the death of me.

Well, some said he's born in Texas
Some said he's born in Maine
I just said he was a Louisiana man
Leader of a steel-drivin' gang
Leader of a steel-drivin' gang
Leader of a steel-drivin' chain gang
Leader of a steel-drivin' gang.

Now the captain said to John Henry (what'd he say?)
I'm gonna bring my steam drill around
Gonna bring my steam drill out on the job
I'm gonna whup that steel on down, down, down
Gonna whup that steel on down
Gonna whup that steel on down, down, down
Gonna whup that steel on down.

Now John Henry says to the captain
Bring your steam drill around
You can bring your steam drill out on the job
An' I'll beat your steam drill down, down, down
Beat your steam drill down
Gonna beat your steam drill down, down, down
Gonna beat your steam drill down (down, yes I can).

John Henry said to his shaker,
Shaker you had better pray
If you miss your six feet of steel
Tomorrow'll be your burnin' day, Mr. Shaker
Tomorrow'll be your burnin' day.
Now the shaker said to John Henry
Well a man ain't nothin' but a man
I'm throwin' a hundred pounds from my hips on down
Doin' all that any man can, can, can
Doin' all that any man can
Doin' all etc etc.

6. OREGON TRAIL

I've been a-grubbin' on a little farm on a flat and windy plain
I've been a-listenin' to the hungry cattle bawl
I'm gonna pack my wife and kids, I'm gonna hit that western road
I'm gonna hit that Oregon Trail this coming fall.

Chorus:
I'm gonna hit that Oregon Trail this coming fall
I'm gonna hit that Oregon Trail this coming fall
Where the good rain falls a-plenty and the crops and orchards grow
I'm gonna hit that Oregon Trail this coming fall.

Well my land is dry and cracklin' and my chickens they are cacklin'
'Cause the dirt and dust is a-gittin' in their craw
They been layin' flint-rock eggs, I had to bust them with a sledge
I'm gonna hit that Oregon Trail this coming fall.

(Chorus)

Well the hogs and pigs are squealin', they're a-rockin' and a-reeelin'
'Cause there ain't no water to water in the draw
I'm gonna grab one by his tail, I'm gonna take him down a western trail
And we'll hit that Oregon Trail this coming fall.

Now my good old horse is honey, yes he's dry and hungry too
You can see his ribs three quarters of a mile
Throw the kids upon his back, and the Bay horse, and the Black
And we'll hit that Oregon Trail this coming fall.

(Chorus)
7. WE SHALL BE FREE
(with Leadbelly, Cisco Houston & Sonny Terry)

In the morning... we shall be free
All day... we shall be free
When the good Lord sets you free.

I was down in the hen house on my knees
I thought I heard a chicken sneeze
Only the rooster sayin' his prayers
Thanking his God for the hens up stairs.

Here's to the preacher... we shall be free
He's a-singin'... we shall be free
Take up collection... we shall be free
When the good Lord sets you free.

Oh some folks say you think too hard
Put all your faith and trust in God
Matter's no difference, don't you see
A hog can't run too fast for me.

Get my hopes up... we shall be free
Get that hog eye... we shall be free
Get them chicken's... we shall be free
When the good Lord sets you free.

Some people say a preacher won't steal
But I caught two down in my corn field
One had a bushel, the other had a peck
The other had a roostin' ear down his neck.

In the kitchen... we shall be free
Gettin' roostin' ears... we shall be free
Gettin' dried corn... we shall be free
When the good Lord sets you free.

Oh the gun said boom and the hog [?] He jumped on it with all his will Pulled off his overcoat and hung it on a rail [?] That hog, guess I'll go to jail.
We shall be free... I don't care
Now let's hear... we shall be free
Forget about the jailbird... we shall be free
When the good Lord sets you free.

8. MY DIRTY OVERHALLS
(with Cisco Houston)

Well the guns of war has roared and the bombs and shells have fallen
The war clouds they rolled as they rolled I was a soldier in the fight and I fought till we won
My uniform's my dirty overalls.

This piece of land that I stand on is my battle field and home
My plow and my hoe is my gun
Dresses don't make any difference at all, we are workers and fighters all
My uniform's my dirty overalls.

Well I'll give you my sweat and I'll give you my blood
And I'll give you your bread and your wine
Before I'll be any man's slave I'll be rottin' down in my grave
And you can lay me down in my dirty overalls.

Well we settled here to stay and I'll stick here all my days
I'll keep marchin' in my dirty overalls.

9. JACKHAMMER BLUES
(with Cisco Houston & Sonny Terry)

I'm a jackhammer man from a jackhammer town
Born with a jackhammer in my hand
Lord God, I've got them jackhammer blues
Jackhammer man from a jackhammer town,
I'll hammer and I'll hammer till the sun goes down
Oh Lord, I got them jackhammer blues.

I hammered on the Bonneville, hammered on the Butte
The Columbia river on a ten mile shoot
Lord God, I got them jackhammer blues
Hammered every port from Alaska down, I built every port from Alaska down [7]
Lord God, got them jackhammer blues.

Lord I'll hammer and I'll hammer till I get done
The sixty-six and the highway one
Lord God, I got them jackhammer blues
With a jackhammer woman as sweet as pie,
I'll hammer and I'll hammer till the day I die
Lord God, I got them jackhammer blues.

Jackhammer man from a jackhammer town
Born with a jackhammer in my hand
Lord God, I got them jackhammer blues
Jackhammer woman as sweet as pie; I'll hammer and I'll hammer till the day I die
Lord God, I got them jackhammer blues.

Well I hammered on my hammer all night long
Hammered for my baby from a-midnight on
Lord God, I got them jackhammer blues
Jackhammer man as sweet as pie, hammer on my hammer till the day I die
Lord God, I got them jackhammer blues.

10. SPRINGFIELD MOUNTAIN
(with Sonny Terry, Cisco Houston & Bess Hawes)

A nice young ma-wa-wa-wa-wan lived on a hill-I-will-I-will
And a nice young ma-wa-wa-wa-wan, and I knewed him well-well-well-well-well
Come a rood-i rood, a rood-i rood-i ray.

This nice young ma-wa-wa-wa-wan, that I do know-wo-wo-wo
See if he wee-gee-gee-gee-gee could make a show-oh-oh-oh
Come a rood etc. . . .

He had not nee-wy-wy-walked but around the fie-wy-wy-wy-wield
When around come a snattle-come a rattle-come a snake
And he got him by the he-wy-gee-gee-wel
Come a rood etc. . . .

Slap my pappy daddy's daddy, go tell my gah-wa-wa-wal
That I'm gonna dee-wy-dee-wy-die, and I know I sha-wa-wa-wawall
Come a rood etc. . . .

Oh my pappy my daddy, daddy's daddy, go
send [?] for me-wywee-wy-woos
Here comes Sally-alla-walla-willy-walla, without her she-wy-wy-wy-woes.

Oh John, oh Joh-wa-wa-wa-wanny, I've come for you to gi-wy-wy-wy-woe
Down in the meadow, way, way down in the meadow [?]
Come a rood e etc.

Oh Sally, oh Sally-wally-wally, why don't you know, dont you know
When the hay gets high it's gotta be mowed
Come a rood etc. . . .

Come all you young men a-when in the mornin'be-wy-wy-wy-wake
And don't you get bit, bit by a rattile-come a snattle-come a rattle-come a snake
Come a rood etc. . . .

11. BROWN EYES
(with Cisco Houston)

Those brown eyes I love so well
Those brown eyes that I long to see
How I long for those brown eyes
Strangers they have grown to be.

Just a year ago today
When my brown eyes went away
Up in the heaven I long to be
Where a brown eyed angel waits for me.

(Chorus)

Last night I passed her on the street
I bowed my head 'cause I could not speak
Another man was at her side
Soon, I thought, she'd be his bride.

(Chorus)

12. THE BOLL WEEVIL
(with Sonny Terry & Cisco Houston)

Boll Weevil said to the farmer, I'll stay right in your field
When I get through with your Cadillac
you'll really wheel and deal
And I'll git your home, git your home.
Farmer said to the merchant I want some meat and meal
Get out of here you son-of-a-gun, Boll Weevil in your field
And I'll git your home, git your home.
Well the farmer went to the banker, I'd like to cash a check
Get out of here you son-of-a-gun, Boll
Weevil down your neck
Gittin' your home, boy, gittin' your home.

Boll Weevil said to the merchant, like to cash a note
Get out of here you rascal Boll Weevil's on your coat
Gittin' your home, gittin' your home.

Oh the Boll Weevil went to the merchant, a-
[?] on his gate
Get to your cotton, boy, you'll sell that
Cadillac Eight
I'm a-gittin' your home, I'm a-gittin' your home.

Yes, said the farmer, see you on the square
Yes sir, said the Boll Weevil, my whole family's there
Gittin' your home, etc. . . .

Gittin' your home, gittin' your home
Hey, hey, hey, that Boll Weevil's gittin' your home
Gittin' your home, boy, gittin' your home.

Well the farmer took that Boll Weevil, laid him in the sand

Boll Weevil said thank you, stand it like a man
I'm gittin' your home, etc. . . .

Farmer said to the Boll Weevil, treat you mighty nice
[?] It'll be my home, etc. . . .

Well, the Boll Weevil he made a trip from Mexico they say
Comin' down to Texas, lookin' for a place to stay
He's a-gittin' a home, etc. . . .

13. GUITAR BLUES (instrumental)
(with Cisco Houston)

14. WILL YOU MISS ME?
(with Cisco Houston & Bess Hawes)

When death'll close my eyelids and my race
on earth is run
Will you miss me when I'm gone?

Chorus:
Will you miss me, miss me, miss me, mis-
me
Will you miss me when I'm gone
Will you miss me when I'm gone?

Come and set yourself beside me
Come and set beside my bed
Lay your hand upon my brow, while my achin' heart grows dead.

(Chorus, two times)

About Smithsonian/Folkways

Folkways Records was founded by Moses Asch and Marian Distler in 1947 to document music, spoken word, instruction, and sounds from around the world. In the ensuing decades, New York City-based Folkways became one of the largest independent record labels in the world, reaching a total of nearly 2,200 albums that were always kept in print.

The Smithsonian Institution acquired Folkways from the Asch estate in 1987 to ensure that the sounds and genius of the artists would be preserved for future generations. All Folkways recordings are now available on high-quality audio cassettes, each packed in a special box along with the original LP liner notes.

Smithsonian/Folkways Recordings was formed to continue the Folkways tradition of releasing significant recordings with high-quality documentation. It produces new titles, reissues of historic recordings from Folkways and other record labels, and in collaboration with other companies also produces instructional videotapes, recordings to accompany published books, and a variety of other educational projects.

The Smithsonian/Folkways, Cook, and Paredon record labels are administered by the Smithsonian Institution's Center for Folklife Programs and Cultural Studies. They are one of the means through which the Center supports the work of traditional artists and expresses its commitment to cultural diversity, education, and increased understanding.

You can find Smithsonian/Folkways Recordings at your local record store. Smithsonian/Folkways, Folkways, Cook, and Paredon recordings are all available through:
