“Seasons, Roads, and Faces”

This recording is dedicated to my family who has always encouraged me: My Dear Ma, Gracie, for sharing her legacy of music; Frances, who gave me my first gut-string guitar, Ruby and Stan, for making music part of every visit; Buck and Brenda, for having confidence in me; Paul, who taught me how to play guitar, Jerry and Rhonda, for liking the old songs; Mick and Cathy, for the selfless devotion to my interests by two very busy people, Janice, who literally wears out the tapes I give her, and Don who never seems to wear out at all; Dear Lavon, who would brag about me even if I couldn’t play a lick. And three guys we all really miss - Jim, who loved music and laughter, Tom my Dad, who gave me more than he probably ever realized. And brother John, who was my biggest fan.

Thanks to Chris O’Connell, Bill Hearne, Don and Kathy Edwards, Stephanie Davis, Red Steagall, Sumner Bruton and Kevin Coffee, for kind words and good deeds which were of great value toward the completion of this album. Thanks to Dick Cappelman for the fine photograph. Thank you - no - Bless you, Bob Coffey, for making the completion of this project a reality.

I want to express my heartfelt appreciation to Gary Graham for his steady patience and interest in this project. We finally did it, Garrison!

Finally, music would not be possible without musicians and I’m fortunate to have had the assistance of great musicians who are also great friends. I would like to think that the friendship is evident as you listen to these tunes.

- Rich O’Brien

“I have known and played with Rich for many years. His friendship I treasure and his musical genius fires my soul and motivates me to be a better player. But this recording is not just for musicians. It’s for anyone who enjoys and appreciates good music. Rich has surrounded himself with others of his like to bring you one of the most brilliant and downright enjoyable instrumental recordings of this century.”

- Don Edwards

“Rich O’Brien is one of the great guitarists of our time. This collection is a fabulous piece of work. Rich’s selection of songs and musicians to accompany him are exceptional. When history looks back on the great instrumentalists of our time, Rich O’Brien will be at the top of the list. Relax and listen to the beauty and masterful interpretations of these classic melodies and get to know my dear friend, Rich O’Brien. You will find him inventive, versatile and extremely enjoyable.”

- Red Steagall
"Seasons, Roads, and Faces"

THE TUNES:

1. Big Sky Bounce (Stephanie Davis: EMI/Beatroot Music/BMI) I thought this tune would be a good way to say “Howdy.” It came from the musical mind of my Montana pal, Stephanie Davis. Stephanie is not only a great songwriter, she also keeps us supplied with some good sheep jokes.

2. There’s An Old Spinning Wheel (In the Parlour) (Traditional) I learned this old tune from my Ma and brother, Paul, when I was a little kid and I still enjoy playing it. As a child, the fiddler in me still comes out to play.

3. Waltz For Bridget (R. E. O’Brien) This song was originally a Christmas gift for a very Texas lady. It was composed on the piano but it makes a nice string band tune.

4. Swing 42 (Jean “Django” Reinhardt, Jewell Music Publishing Co. Inc./ASCAP) Django Reinhardt and Stephane Grappelli have influenced guitar players and fiddlers the world over. This is but one of their many tunes that is really fun to play.

5. I’ll Be With You In Apple Blossom Time (Traditional, Von Tiller & Felsen) I have loved the incredible singing of Chris O’Connell since the first time I heard her with “Asleep At The Wheel” twenty years ago. She honors us with this wonderful version of an old pretty song.

6. Dancing Mick From Louisville (R. E. O’Brien) This Irish-sounding ditty just came to me out of the blue (green?) on a St. Patrick’s Day morning, I dedicated it to the memory of my grand-uncle, Ed “Yeller” O’Brien who, apparently, was never too concerned with what was considered conventional behavior.

7. Limehouse Blues (Braham & Foster, Warner Bros. Inc./ASCAP) Another old standard that’s fun to play. Joey’s rhythm guitar work and Wolf’s dobro solo are equally ferocious on this cut.

9. The Gypsy’s Jewellery (R. E. O’Brien) Thanks to Joey Mckenzie for the loan of his Macfarlane/Selmer-style guitar. The song was inspired by the music of Django Reinhardt, a gypsy who spent most of his life in France.

10. On the Trail—Basil Poledouris (Pilgrim Entertainment Co./ASCAP) I was about thirteen years old the first time I heard Larry McMurtry’s “Leaving Cheyenne.” Since then I’ve tried to read everything he’s written. His “Lonesome Dove” has become my all-time favorite western movie. This lovely, bittersweet waltz is recurrent throughout the soundtrack. For Stan Hansen, Cheryl Malone and John Clark.

11. Come And Dine (The Master Calleth) (Traditional) I first heard this old song performed by the Armstrong girls; Oly, my aunt and Gracie, my ma. They learned it from my grandma, Florence, in the Ozark hills long ago. It’s nice to imagine a time when families would get together and sing songs about the Lord; it seems to be a rarity in today’s world.

12. October’s Message (R. E. O’Brien) There is something about Autumn that words can’t express so this little melody will have to do for now. Thanks to the other players for their input regarding which chord to use in the first measure.

13. Fling of the Tinks (R. E. O’Brien) The title is so much an “inside” thing that I’m not sure that even I understand it. Ask Snuffy Elmore what it means.

14. When You And I Were Young, Maggie (Traditional) My ma, Gracie, told me that she remembered the old-timers singing “Maggie” slowly and reverently sometimes and at other times they’d sing it loudly. Hopefully, this arrangement would earn the approval of the “old-timers”.

THE PLAYERS:

CHRIS O’CONNELL - Vocal on “Apple Blossom Time”

TOM “WOLF” MORRELL - Dobro and Rhythm Guitar

RANDY “SNUFFY” ELMORE - Fiddle, Rhythm Guitar, Mandolin and Strings

JOEY McKENZIE - Rhythm Guitar, Tenor Guitar, Fiddle and Mandolin

BUCK REAMS - Rhythm Guitar

MARK ABBOTT - Acoustic Bass Fiddle

RONNY SHULTZ - Bass Fiddle on “Big Sky Bounce”, “Limehouse Blues” and “Fling of the Tinks”

GREG HARDY - Drums and Percussion

BILLY ENGLISH - Percussion

RICH O’BRIEN - Acoustic Guitars, Marimba on “Santa Rosa Serenade” and Mandolin on “Fling of the Tinks”

Executive Producers: Bob Coffey, Gary Graham and Richard E. O’Brien

Producer and Arranger: Rich O’Brien

Recorded at Studio 12, Weatherford, Texas (817) 596-9191

Engineer: Gary Graham

Digital Mastering by George Geurin, Digital Editing Services, Dallas, Texas

Photography by Dick Cappelmann, Fort Worth, Texas

Calligraphy by Rich O’Brien

WESTERN JUBILEE RECORDING COMPANY

Post Office Box 9187
Colorado Springs, CO 80932

Phone: 719.635.5975
Fax: 719.635.9789

E-mail: custsvc@westernjubilee.com

www.westernjubilee.com

For Booking and Information:

SCOTT O’MALLEY & ASSOCIATES, LLC

Post Office Box 9188
Colorado Springs, Colorado 80932

Phone: 719.635.9789

Fax: 719.635.9790

E-mail: salesagency@comcast.net

Website: www.salesagency.com

DUALTONE

Dualtone Music Group Inc., 1614 17th Avenue South, Nashville, TN 37212. All rights reserved. Unauthorized duplication is a violation of applicable laws. Made in the U.S.A. info@dualtone.com www.dualtone.com
THE TUNES:

1. Big Sky Bounce (Stephanie Davis, EM/Breathart Music/BM) I thought this tune would be a good way to say "Howdy." It came from the musical mind of my Montana pal, Stephanie Davis. Stephanie is not only a great songwriter, she also keeps us supplied with some good sheep jokes.

2. There's An Old Spinning Wheel (In the Parlour) (Traditional) I learned this old tune from my Ma and brother, Paul. When I was a little kid and I still enjoy playing it.

3. Waltz For Bridget (R.E. O'Brien) This song was originally a Christmas gift for a very lovely Texas lady. It was composed on the piano but it makes a nice string band tune.

4. Swing 42 (John "Jango" Reinhardt, Jewell Music Publishing Co. Inc./ASCAP) Django Reinhardt and Stephane Grappelli have influenced guitar players andiddlers the world over. This is but one of their many tunes that is really fun to play.

5. I'll Be With You In Apple Blossom Time (Traditional, Von Tilson & Fesler) I love the incredible singing of Chris O'Connell since the first time I heard her with "Asleep At The Wheel" twenty years ago. She honours us with this wonderful version of an old pretty song.

6. Dancing Mick From Louisville (R.E. O'Brien) This Irish-sounding ditty just came to me out of the blue (green?) on a St. Patrick's Day morning. I dedicated it to the memory of my grand-uncle, Ed "Velly" O'Brien who, apparently, was never too concerned with what was considered conventional behavior.

7. Limehouse Blues (Brahm & Foster, Warner Bros. Inc./ASCAP) Another old standard that's fun to play. Joey's rhythm guitar work and Wolf's dobro solo are equally ferocious on this cut.

8. Santa Rosa Serenade (R.E. O'Brien) A tip of my sombrero to the Great Southwest... for Steve Murrin.

9. The Gypsy's Deweyry (R.E. O'Brien) Thanks to Joey Mckenzie for this loan of his Macfarren/Selmer-style guitar. The song was inspired by the music of Django Reinhardt, a gypsy who spent most of his life in France.

10. On the Trail--Basil Poledouris (PFI/Entertainment Music Co./admin. by Zomba Songs, Inc., BMI) I was about thirteen years old the first time I read Larry McMurtry's "Leaving Cheyenne." Since then I've tried to read everything he's written. His "Lonesome Dove" has become my all-time favorite western movie. This lovely, bittersweet waltz is recurrent throughout the soundtrack. For Stan Hansen, Cheryl Malone and John Clark.

11. Come And Dine (The Master Cal传奇) (Traditional) I first heard this old song performed by the Armstrong girls; Oly, my aunt and Gracie, my ma. They learned it from my grandma, Florence, in the Ozark hills long ago. It's nice to imagine a time when families would get together and sing songs about the Lord; it seems to be a rarity in today's world.

12. October's Message (R.E. O'Brien) There is something about Autumn that words can't express so this little melody will have to do for now. Thanks to the other players for their input regarding which chord to use in the first measure.

13. Fling of the Tinks (R.E. O'Brien) The title is so much of an "inside" thing that I'm not sure that even I understand it. Ask Snuffy Elmore what it means.

14. When You And I Were Young, Maggie (Traditional) My ma, Gracie, told me that she remembered the old-timers singing "Maggie" slowly and reverently sometimes and at other times they'd sing it lively. Hopefully, this arrangement would earn the approval of the "old-timers".

Richard O'Brien

THE PLAYERS:

CHRIS O'CONNELL - Vocal on "Apple Blossom Time"
TOM "WOLF" MORRELL - Dobro and Rhythm Guitar
RANDY "SNUFFY" ELMORE - Fiddle, Rhythm Guitar, Mandolin and Strings
JOEY MCKENZIE - Rhythm Guitar, Tenor Guitar, Fiddle and Mandolin
BUCK REAMS - Rhythm Guitar
MARK ABBOTT - Acoustic Bass Fiddle
RONNY SHULTZ - Bass Fiddle on "Big Sky Bounce", "Limehouse Blues" and "Fling of the Tinks"
GREG HARDY - Drums and Percussion
BILLY ENGLISH - Percussion
RICH O'BRIEN - Acoustic Guitars, Marinana on "Santa Rosa Serenade" and Mandolin on "Fling of the Tinks"

Executive Producers: Bob Coffey, Gary Graham and Richard E. O'Brien
Producer and Arranger: Rich O'Brien
Recorded at Studio 12, Weatherford, Texas (817) 596-9191
Engineer: Gary Graham
Digital Mastering by George Geurin, Digital Editing Services, Dallas, Texas
Photography by Dick Cappleman, Fort Worth, Texas
Calligraphy by Rich O'Brien
“Seasons, Roads, and Faces”

This recording is dedicated to my family who has always encouraged me. My Dear Ma, Gracie, for sharing her legacy of music. Frances, who gave me my first gui-string guitar, Ruby and Stan, for making music part of every visit. Buck and Brenda, for having confidence in me. Paul, who taught me how to play guitar. Jerry and Rhonda, for liking the old songs. Mick and Cathy, for the selfless devotion to my interests by two very busy people, Janice, who literally wears out the tapes I give her, and Don who never seems to wear out at all. Dear Lavon, who would brag about me even if I couldn’t play a lick. And three guys we all really miss - Jim, who loved music and laughter. Tom my Dad, who gave me more than he probably ever realized. And brother John, who was my biggest fan.

Thanks to Chris O’Connell, Bill Hearne, Don and Kathy Edwards, Stephanie Davis, Red Steagall, Sunil Brouton and Kevin Coffey, for kind words and good deeds which were of great value toward the completion of this album. Thanks to Dick Cappelman for the fine photograph. Thank you - no - Bless You, Bob Coffey, for making the completion of this project a reality.

I want to express my heartfelt appreciation to Gary Graham for his steady patience and interest in this project. We finally did it, Garrison!

Finally, music would not be possible without musicians and I’m fortunate to have had the assistance of great musicians who are also great friends. I would like to think that the friendship is evident as you listen to these tunes.

- Rich O’Brien

“I have known and played with Rich for many years. His friendship I treasure and his musical genius fires my soul and motivates me to be a better player. But this recording is not just for musicians. It’s for anyone who enjoys and appreciates good music. Rich has surrounded himself with others of his like to bring you one of the most brilliant and downright enjoyable instrumental recordings of this century.”

– Don Edwards

“Rich O’Brien is one of the great guitarists of our time. This collection is a fabulous piece of work. Rich’s selection of songs and musicians to accompany him are exceptional. When history looks back on the great instrumentalists of our time, Rich O’Brien will be at the top of the list. Relax and listen to the beauty and masterful interpretations of these classic melodies and get to know my dear friend, Rich O’Brien. You will find him inventive, versatile and extremely enjoyable.”

– Red Steagall
“In the best cowboy tradition, O’Brien plays as if he is never in a hurry, even when he’s picking a lightning-fast solo.”

Acoustic Guitar Magazine

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Track</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Duration</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1.</td>
<td>Big Sky Bounce</td>
<td>2:01</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.</td>
<td>There’s An Old Spinning Wheel (In the Parlor)</td>
<td>2:44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.</td>
<td>Waltz for Bridget</td>
<td>3:48</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.</td>
<td>Swing 42</td>
<td>2:49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.</td>
<td>I’ll Be With You in Apple Blossom Time</td>
<td>2:53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.</td>
<td>Dancing Mick from Louisville</td>
<td>1:54</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.</td>
<td>Limehouse Blues</td>
<td>2:44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8.</td>
<td>Santa Rosa Serenade</td>
<td>4:00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9.</td>
<td>The Gypsy’s Djewelry</td>
<td>2:41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10.</td>
<td>On The Trail</td>
<td>2:55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11.</td>
<td>Come and Dine (The Master Calleth)</td>
<td>2:10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12.</td>
<td>October’s Message</td>
<td>3:23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13.</td>
<td>Fling of the Tinks</td>
<td>3:13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14.</td>
<td>When You and I Were Young, Maggie</td>
<td>2:50</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>